

The married ^{Mr} Sar: Hornefall was born at Barneley Dec: 5th 1697. Her Parents being religious Members of the Church of England bro^t her up in the same way, and when her Father was about to depart this Life, which happened when the deceased ^{Mr} was 7 Years old, he desired that this his Daughter, for whom he had a great Love, might go to live with her Grand Mother who was a pious old Woman. With her she remained till she departed this Life, and then went to wait on a Gentlewoman, in which Place as well as in some other Gentleman's Families she was never easy in her Mind, but always thoughtfull about her future State till she was married to the present Widower at Glossop in Derbyshire July 2: 1727, by whom she had 7 Children, 1 Son is in the Service House at Hulmeck and 1 Daughter mar^{ied} in Golear & in our Society, 3 are gone home before her & 2 in the World.

About the Year 1743 Her Hus band went to hear M^r Ingham preach at Smithhouse, whereby he became awakened, and his frequent attending the meetings of awakened People caused a good deal of uneasiness between them both, till being drawn by Curiosity to see what her Hus band was so fond of, she went herself and soon found that she was in a very wretched Condition as touching her Salvation. Then it became dear to her what it was that made her Hus band so diligent in going to the meetings at such a distance, she asked him Gordon with shame for her past behaviour and nothing could prevent her going along with him ever after. About the same time she desired the Gospel might be preached in their House for the Benefit of her Neighbours, whose Souls ^{she} ~~she~~ thirsted after, and it has continued there with blessings she thirsted after, and it has continued there with blessings ever since. She turned to our Saviour as a poor lost Sinner and found him gracious to the forgiving her all her sins and cleansing her from all Unrighteousness, the clear impression of which she retained unalterably to her last Moment. She was received into the Cong^y at Fulneck Dec^r. 21st 1748. to her great Joy, and went the first time to the holy Com^m with the Cong^y in Gumeral Chapel Dec^r. 4th 1751 From that time she prized her Elecⁿ.

tion of Grace to the Cong^y as dear and precious, and missed no Opportunity either at Mirfield or Fulneck till old Age and bodily Infirmitie obliged her to stay at home much against her will. When she at any time heard B^{ro} & S^{rs} exhort their not attending the Meetings on Account of family Concerns or Business, she always replied: "That never hindered "me, for if I knew of a blessing for my heart, I always recom"mended my family concerns to our Sav^r and went, and "when I returned, found things in better order than if I had "been at home my Self." She was a faithfull and careful Hostess and Nurse to all B^{ro} & S^{rs} who came to her House and had at such times much of the Martha Spirit mixed with Marys Disposition of heart to enjoy. True, Her Activity of Soul was sometimes hurtfull to her, but when ever she was reminded of it she always acknowledged her fault and came to rights again. ~~She had naturally~~ This quick disposition very often hurried her beyond her Strength of Body and bro^t on slight sickness, which in a little time went of again, but Sep^r 9th being much hurried in providing for those who were working in the Harvest was the Day on which she took her last sickness. However she was well at Noon and dined with her husband & B^r Worthington, who went there to keep the meeting, in her usual cheerfull way; but suddenly got up from Table and went out complaining of an uncommon Pain in her Head. Her long stay caused her blood to follow her, and finding her incapable of helping herself, he bro^t her in and put her to Bed where her disorder soon shewed itself to be a hot fever. When her pain was most Violent she soothed her soul to ease & rest with the tormenting Anguish & Pain of her dear Saviour which she told B^r Worthington that same day.

Sunday Sep^r 15th when B^r Worth^m went to preach at Golar he found her much easier as if the fever had left her. Upon asking her if she tho^t she should go home? she said: that would be my hearts Inclination, for I have lived long enough without seeing him, tho^{ugh} he has never left me from the first time I know him to this hour, but I cannot tell how it will be. However if he will take me I am ready, for I have his Blood and Righteousness, tho^{ugh} I feel my self more vile then ever I did in my Life. Sunday Sep^r 22nd: Her husband reminded her that it was the Com^m day. she replied I know it and have no Mind for eating or for drinking food which must corrupt again; of Gods Bread that heavenly I am thinking, Jesus Christ to flesh I'd obtain; who was formed of the seed of David & his Blood is Drink Oh how I raise it from Earthly Life to be set free in Lower Immortality.

She continued mostly in a Slumber till Tuesday the 24th at Night when her soul took flight to the Arms of her eternal Bridegroom about 10 o'clock in the 68th Year of her Age.
