the first time with an inexpressible manner in her dearest friend room in same year & Little before Christmas She was taken with a pain in her Side, but did not conceive much of it; but got one fault plainly see that it Suffered her body very much, in a Little while she became something better returned again on ye 11th of July She partook of our dear Saviour's flesh & blood for ye Last time with ye Congregation in ye was very Patient & her choice was all was much more to go to her Spouse than to worse & S<sup>r</sup> Sophia being home She spoke to her about going home, & said that She knew every thing was made up with our dear Lamb, & She should be glad to go him, so She continued longing and wishing that She might go to him, and to ever one that came to see her, She expressed her hearty wishes to go and that She would not forget one of them when She came to be with our Saviour for She could not forget Communion Dinner & what She there enjoyed, that She waited with Patients & watched for our dear Saviour her Eternal Bridegroom to come and fetch, so that it was a pleasure to see her, She now began to alter and grew very Weak She was now and then a little Light Headed, but Spoke very sweetly & sang that whole Verse When I shall get permission to leave this Mortal Tent On ye 12 about twelve o'clock at Noon She said now I am a going pray call them Our Dear S<sup>r</sup> Sophia then came to her & began to sing many Sutable Verses then She said dear Lamb I am a coming then Sister Sophia Bled her under those Words prail Lips kiss her on ye heart Open Armes take her under which words, this happy Virgin went over into ye Armes of her beloved Bridegroom there was a pretty felling of ye Nearness of ye him in ye Room and we thanked our Dear Lamb for her Election of Grace
