

The Course of Life of the Gr^t ^lYere Anna Germbold who was born in Londⁿ Augth 13. 1752. Her weakly constitution obliged Her ^{d^r} parents to continue Her with them till she was 3 years of age at which Time she was brought by Her mama to live in the ^{childrens} ^{house} where she became soon home both with Her sisters & children, she was of a happy & cheerful disposition but with all so very sickly as even to be incapable Her for taking any Education or instructions further then what Her own natural generous mood Her too, which was of the most simple & child like kind & when Her room companions was at their little diversions, she would be take herself to reading or writing verses & singing such verses as was the most pleasing to Her, & say "they blood sweat dear Sav^r" & sink me till deeper so forth that one could perceive our dear Anna had a Tender Heart who delighted itself in the school of the Afflictions & to speak & converse with our dearest Sav^r. yet on all other occasions Her bodily weakness, ^{attended with a violent cough} obliged the Sisters to nurse & treat Her as one not half Her age & thro' the great Laxity of Her Stomach and Bowels Her vitals seldom afforded it proper nuture for Her bodily Support, so that she bore about the most weakly Tabernacle of any Child of Her years in the most patience that ever could be expected, in the year 64 she was took into the Gr^t Girls [illegible]

was imparted to her from her souls bridegroom ~~which~~ during the blessing of her Christ, which ^{gave} off such an amiable impression on her ^{lovely} ^{features} as caused the most ^{tearful} ^{compassionate} ^{loving} ^{kind} Love Tears to flow both from girl & sister as hath not been felt on the like occasion thus our dear & much beloved amiable & gentle very unexpectedly entered into the joy of her 2^d aged 16 years 9 months & some days, the short time of her course spent amongst us merited the tenderest love & respect to her & her dear parents for she was an obedient & simple & childlike heart
