The S. S<sup>t</sup> Rachel Roebuck was born in Haddonsfield Feb. 14th 1732.

She came to live in Balneochit. 14.
1763, the following year she was rec<sup>d</sup> into the Cong<sup>o</sup> and Jan. 11. 1767 she partook for the first time of the H. Com<sup>m</sup>. She most of her time amongst us, she spent in serving families on the place, in which situations she showed great faithfulness; and enjoyed the love of those whom she served.

a few years ago she removed into the S<sup>t</sup> House here, being far advanced in years and not able to do much.
She spent her time happily amongst us and her chief concern was to live in fellowship and communion with our various ~~set~~ <sup>set</sup>. About a fourth night before her departure she was seized with an insurmountable pain, from which she never recovered.

tho' she was able to go about, nearly in her usual way, but it seemed clear to her, that she never should be better, she often prayed earnestly to our Saviour to prepare her for himself, and she looked forward with joy to that happy moment when pain and sorrow would ~~cease~~ <sup>cease</sup> and she should be with him for evermore.
Dec 28th after having spent a tedious some night, & suffered much with shortness of ~~the~~ breath, she said in the morning, that she should never go to ~~the~~ bed again, our Saviour would fetch her before another night, and so it proved according to her faith, about 1 o'clock at noon, she wished for hour came when she in a peaceful and happy manner went over into the arms of her beloved Saviour. Aged in her 80th She departed Dec 31. 1812.
