

Susannah Peel at Claketon in Boarstel Parish

Oct^{ber} 17th 1729

When she was very young she was left without Father & Mother, and by that means was Left to the Care of her Relations, Among whom she has Lived ever since till she began to hear the Br^{en}, in 9th Year, 49, when she according to her earnest desire was taken in to the Academy at Claketon, where she remained till the Academy removed to Tyrval-hall, where she became more Acquainted with ~~her~~ Saviour, she was a cheerful and happy heart, her Disposition was Child-like an honest which made her beloved by all the Sisters, who had to do with her, in the Year 51. She got a great desire to be received in to the Congregation, which was granted to her Jan^{ry} 12th 1751. She was very much rejoiced that our Saviour had granted her the favour to be one of his Chose people, she soon Longed very much to be made a partaker, of the holy Sacrament, which Grace she enjoyed for the first time August 13th in the Same Year, it was a very weight and precious Grace to her, that she was now a partake of the Corps and blood of her Dearest Lord and Saviour. She was then quite cheerful, and one could perceive that her whole aim and intension was, to be a pleasure to his heart, who had shed his blood for her; when the Sisters removed out of the Academy, into the Choir-house, she had the favour to be one of them, and thought her self highly favoured, that she had a place among that Choir which our Saviour himself has brought to gether, to be an Honor to his Name, and a reward for all his Smart and pain.

in March 53. She got bad legs and then broke out in Sores, as also her feet the Sister used means which helped her for a short time.

but towards the End of 5th Year it returned again.

and has continued to return every Spring and fall She however remained very patient under it and complained very little. She often Longed to be at home with our Saviour, for She said that her Disorder was of such a nature, that She was likely to be a very trouble som to the Sisters, which was some pain to her, but her Chearfulness of heart made it a pleasure to see her.

When the dear Devil and mother was here in the year 74 and kept the first fair Sacrament She had the favour to be one of that Number it was a great addition to her joy, that her Bridegroom and Lover had come in such a manner, tho She according to her thoughts was one of the meekest, and has many times since said that in all her Life She could not forgive and when She should once get the favour to see her friend and Lover She would kiss his bleeding feet for it.

in March Last She began to cough, and her Saves did not appear much but it shrank more in her, and settled on her Lungs, She made use of Medisens, but it was to no Effect, it was so in her mind that our Saviour would soon fetch her to him self, this became daily more plain to her and She only wished that her time might be short, for She Longed much to be at home

July ~~the 17th~~ 13th She took to the Sick-room out of which She came some her disorder was not attended with much pain; but She has been Carried on in a very easy manner, Longer however Sickness She has remained in a Close Convent with the man of Smack, so that one could feel when ever one spoke with her; her heart was with tender Longing after her Eternal Bridegroom

She many time Express'd in words how near She felt him, and how tenderly he embraced her Particularly the Last Sacrament, of which She got her Share in the Sick-room, the time before when She enjoy'd with Karrah Clark, She was somewhat grieved that She went before her, but how ever Satisfied her Self saying, I shall say one Lord's supper, and then I shall go to the Saviour being wished if She should like to stay till the next day She said yes if he will have me stay, I am resign'd, but not for that, I will not stay, because when I am with him I shall always keep the Lord's supper

She then begd our Saviour soon to fetch her, and not to tarry so long the Sisters told She should have patience, the time would not be long then She would say do you think so, then I will be Satisfied.

Her Class S^r made her a Love-feast, on account of her Birth-day, on which occasion, She Express'd her Satisfaction and then kiss'd them heartily, and thank'd them for their Love, She was for some days in an Extraordinary sweet and composed disposition, so that one could discern in her Look, that her time drew near. Which unhappend unexpectedly a bout a week in the Morning 30th instant by reason of an impost in her Throught, with the blessing of her Choir By S^r Dargy drawing during those words:

Pail Lips kiss her on the cheek Open Arms take her,
