

Sally Hoult

was born at Bramell in the Parish of Hockport in Cheshire on the 25 Day of Feb: 1727 where she liv'd till about 1743 when she being stirr'd up in her heart by the Holy ghst to seek after the salvation of her soul and sometime after hearing the Testimony of the B^{rs} & being convinced of the truth & simplicity of the gospel taught by them, Iron acquaintance with them and in the year 1748 gain'd the favour to live in the single sisters Hoult in Tuckerfield where she behav'd very well & was loved by all.

Having afterwards along with some more sisters paid a visit to the congregation in Yorkshire she express'd her mind & hearty Desire to be a member of ^{that} Body.

Hearing of the single sisters there being built she would say O! that our Father may one grant me the favour to live in that house.

In the month of September 1750 she with the rest of the Economy Removing from Duck cresfield to live in Yorkshire took her abode in Tyrevelt Hall where she lived to the satisfaction both of herself & her sisters, Only as she was not Receiv'd in the congregation would sometimes give her Pain.

In the latter End of the Year 1751 she began to be a little disorder'd by the Rheumatism which settled in her Arm & in the Spring following it remaining & also

also being attended with a Dropsical distemp^r & a Complication of Disorders Render'd her almost incapable of Business.

Her Reception lay very near her Heart & she Often would sigh & weep after a nearer Fellowship with our dear Saviour & his Church. Thus she continued all Summer & as to health Better & worse.

In the Month of Nov: 1792 she Obtain'd the Grace to be Reconcil'd to her Great Joy & Satisfaction.

When we Enter'd in our Choir House she cheerfully came without raising & adorning her Ambush had granted her that she so long had wish'd for: But she had not long Enjoy'd this Happiness before her Joy was in some Respect interrupted by the return of her Disorder in a much greater Degree than before & in the beginning of the Present year the Dropsy increasing her whole Frame & her Arm being quite useless by the Rheumatism &c. she was not able to help herself therefore was Oblig'd to take her Room & now it was she began to think of going home & speaking to a Sister about it. Did you will see One of the Poorest & perhaps least thought of getting the Favour to go out of this ^{House} & wish'd that the happy hour might soon come.

The spoke of her Departure with a great deal of Pleasure Rejoicing in the full assurance she felt of the Love of our Saviour & the Free forgiveness of all her sins in his dear Blood.

In May her Father & Mother came to see her, she beg'd them not to be trouble'd about her telling them she was going to her much wish'd for Habitation & to her beloved Lord. They asking if she had a mind to be buried in her own Country she answer'd NO! I have chosen to live with the Congregation I chuse also to be with them & it is my Chace to be Buried Here.

After they was gone she looking out at her window & seeing the burying ground she express'd her hearty desire of going home; But added that she should ~~should~~ be extremely glad to partake of the Lords Supper first, for now she felt her Heart very desirous thereof & of a nearer Fellowship with him whose House was very near & dear to her Heart.

Sometime after hearing at a Distance One sing that Verse I am Drunk for Love & half Departed &c. she began also to sing & said I know who was the Author of that Verse I wish I was with him then I should also be with my Lamb then I would think on many whom I leave behind me but I will think on my Relations first that you may be sure.

She often repeated her Desire for the Sacrament & according to her wish & Desire was confirm'd on the 13th of August to her Unpeakable Joy: She now thought she could be satisfied till the time she indeed should be partaker thereof! but growing weaker continually thought the time very long so that she even Number'd the Days. Being Persuaded to have

Patience she answered that she felt her self very weak & that she was sure she could not stay long. On the Eight of Sept. she was worse than ever, but one Received more of her Desire by her Looks & Gesture than by her words for now she spoke very little. Went

On the 9th of September being Lo-supper Day she was Extremely bad but very still & Patient Testifying the by her look the desire of her Heart which was granted her the same Day By the Papior Partaking of the Corp^s & blood of her Eternal Husband

In a little time after she Express'd her longing to go saying now she was ready she Continued Exceeding bad But Happy & cheerful in the Contemplation of the Love and Peace of her Lamb. On Saturday the 15 of September she again Alter'd & in the Afternoon between 4 & 5 o'Clock Happily took her flight into the Arms of her Love under the singing of

Pale Lips Kiss her upon the Heart

And being blest for her Departure by his Ser Jorge accompanied by the other Labourers who also Continued to sing several suitable Verses in thanking & Praising our Saviour who had so happily conducted her thro' all her Pain Sicknes & Now Kiss'd her to Him-
